In summary, to make money trading on Betfair you MUST do two things. First, build up the depth of your knowledge of the market. Second, understand the market from the inside. This is not an easy task, but it is essential for success.

and the market conditions will dictate when you will be able to use it. The 5 stages of trading are: 1. Learning the market, 2. Finding a profitable strategy, 3. Testing the strategy, 4. Refining the strategy, and 5. Trading the strategy. The first stage is the most important, as it sets the foundation for the rest of the process. The second stage is also crucial, as it determines whether you have a profitable strategy. The third stage is where you test your strategy in a controlled environment. The fourth stage is where you refine your strategy based on the results of your testing. The fifth stage is where you trade your strategy in the real market.
