Luis Campos, who served as the sporting director of PSG and an external advisor to Celta Vigo until Friday, has 💯 officially ended his association with the Spanish club Celta Vigo, breaking all contracts and professional ties with the La Liga 💯 club. The departure, effective immediately, was announced by the club on Saturday evening.
Campos had been part of Celta Vigo's organigram 💯 since March 2024 but speculation about his departure from the Spanish club had been rife for several weeks, especially following 💯 a presidential change at the club.
Celta Vigo, in its official statement, acknowledged Campos' contributions during the 21-month collaboration and 💯 confirmed that both parties had amicably agreed upon his departure.
The club has opted to change its model, moving on from 💯 Campos' advisory role and bringing a bona fide football director who will be actively involved with club affairs daily. This 💯 approach was reportedly a point of contention for Campos, who spends the majority of his time in Paris due to 💯 his more significant role with PSG, so he was never going to take on the responsibilities demanded by Celta.
With his 💯 departure from Celta Vigo, Campos' focus now remains solely on PSG from this point on and at a pivotal point 💯 throughout the season with the winter transfer window about to open on January 1. Campos has a contract through June 💯 2025 at PSG.
